Report on the Montreux Congress

Christos Katsaros and his organising committee arranged a highly successful meeting which was well attended. A report of the congress held in Switzerland is available at: www.eoseurope.org.

During the Business Meeting, it was reported that a separate company, NEBEOP, had been set up and further information is available at: <http://www.nebeop.org/>

94th EOS Congress, Edinburgh U.K.

Dirk Bister, will host the next congress in Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. The keynote speakers are: Giulio Alessandro-Bonetti, Mauro Farella, Piotr Fudalej, Tony Ireland, Mithran Goonewardene, Greg Huang, John Morton/Manuel Roman, Magali Mujagic, Tim Newton, Raphael Patcas, David Rice, Maisa Seppala and Guy Willems. The pre-congress course will be given by Björn Ludwig and the postgraduate course by Sabine Ruf. The Sheldon Friel Lecture will be given by Fraser McDonald.

Dirk Bister, Pat Set, Leila Khamashta-Ledezma and Remo Schalcher promoting the 94th Congress

Abstracts for the meeting can be submitted at: www.eosabstracts.org. The closing date for submission is the 1st December 2017.

We hope that you will be able to join us in this vibrant city for interesting scientific and networking (social) programmes.

Forthcoming Congresses

Applications are invited from active EOS members to hold the congress in 2024 northern or eastern Europe. In the event of more than one application, a ballot will take place.

Please note that all proposed venues must have an auditorium large enough to accommodate 2000+ delegates.

Distinguished Teacher Lecture

The next distinguished teacher lecture, to be given by Anton Sculean on 'Recession coverage in orthodontic patients', will take place at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece. Please note that these lectures are free for postgraduate students.

Grants

EOS Research Grants have been awarded this year to Winfried Harzer (University of Dresden, Germany,) Gregory Antonarakis (University of Geneva, Switzerland) and Alejandro Iglesias-Linares (University of Madrid, Spain).

Further grants for sums between £5,000.00 and £20,000.00 (or the equivalent in Euros) are now available to members for research. The closing date for applications is the 31st December 2017. The regulations can be found at: http://www.eoseurope.org/eos/grants_and_awards

As Vaska Vandeveska-Radunovic is now a member of Council and can no longer serve on the Research Committee, her position has been taken by Professor Maria Ransjö of the University of Gothenburg, Sweden.

European Board of Orthodontists (EBO)

The closing date to sit the EBO examination in Edinburgh is the 31st December 2017. To download an application form, please go to: <http://www.eoseurope.org/ebo/ebo>

EJO

David Rice has now commenced a second term of office as editor of the EJO. This term runs from 2017 to 2024.

The EJO is now the top ranked journal in orthodontics with an impact factor of 1.6.

Congratulations to everyone involved in this success and keep supporting your journal!

Deaths

It is with great sadness that we have to announce the deaths of Irmtrud Jonas of Germany and Bengt Ingervall, former director of the Department of Orthodontics in Bern, Switzerland.

Membership

The annual subscription fee is now due and, if appropriate, a payment form is enclosed with this letter. Please note that this is due on the 1st January 2018.

Please ensure that your CVC number is included when you return the form. Failure to do so results in an increased administrative workload.
